The Spirit of True Repentance is a profound and transformative concept in Christianity. It involves a sincere and heartfelt turning away from sin and turning towards God. Here are some key verses that highlight this theme:

- Acts 2:38: "Peter replied, 'Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.'"

- Revelation 22:6: "The angel said to me, 'These words are trustworthy and true. The Lord, the God who inspires the prophets, sent his angel to show his servants the things that must soon take place.'"

- Matthew 3:11: "I baptize you with water for repentance. But after me comes one who is more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

- Hebrews 6:4: "It is impossible for those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, who have shared in the Holy Spirit."

- Romans 2:29: "No, a person is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is circumcision of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the written code. Such a person’s praise is not from other people, but from God."

- Isaiah 57:15: "For this is what the high and exalted One says—he who lives forever, whose name is holy: 'I live in a high and holy place, but also with the one who is contrite and lowly in spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly and to revive the heart of the contrite.'"

- John 4:23: "Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks."

- Psalm 51:17: "My sacrifice, O God, is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart you, God, will not despise."

These verses collectively emphasize the importance of genuine repentance, humility, and a heartfelt return to God. They highlight the transformative power of the Holy Spirit in guiding believers towards a life of true worship and righteousness.
